Where to next?
Objective

to reflect on what we have covered and provide the opportunity to practice acquired skills and plan our next step in development as supervisors
Skills of an effective supervisor

✓ Clinically competent and knowledgeable
✓ Good teaching and interpersonal skills
✓ Helpful behaviours
  ✓ Direct guidance on clinical work
  ✓ Linking theory and practice
  ✓ Joint problem solving
  ✓ Offering feedback
  ✓ Reassurance
  ✓ Role model
✓ Feedback
practice makes perfect
Five-step microskills model of clinical teaching

Pre-activity

1. Get a commitment
2. Probe for supporting evidence
3. Teach general rules
4. Reinforce what was right
5. Correct mistakes

Activity
Supervision continuing development

- Facility
- QHealth
- Colleges
- University

- Journals
- Conferences
- Associations
Supervision resources

The Superguide: A handbook for supervising doctors

TEACHING ON THE RUN
Teaching tips for Clinicians

Fiona R Lake
Gerard Ryan
Why continue to improve as a supervisor?

- Supervision is rewarding
- Supervision makes a difference
- Supervision improves patient care
Use this time in your training to:

- Develop and hone your supervision skills
- Find what works for you
- Practice on your current Junior Doctors
- Seek feedback from both the Junior Doctors and your Supervisor

Your need for supervision skills will only increase as you progress in your career
Post-activity and reflection

"If you don’t know where you’re going, you’re probably not gonna get there."

-Forrest Gump